

ALERT – THEFTS OF VEHICLES – ‘HANOI BURGLARY’

Criminals are breaking into homes to steal car keys belonging to high-powered vehicles which they then drive away. This type of crime is referred to as ‘HANOI Burglary’.

A dark coloured VOLVO saloon bearing false number plates with three males on board has been sighted at each incident and Police are trying to trace the vehicle.

Please be extra vigilant at this time and if you, or any of your Watch members, possess a high-powered vehicle then think about extra security measures both within homes and vehicles.

If you have seen anything suspicious on your street, or have any information at all, including any of your own personal security camera footage, which shows a dark coloured Volvo saloon with three males on board please phone 101 and quote ‘HANOI burglary’; the Police Contact Centre are aware of this type of theft and will inform PC 2381 Vicki Docherty, who is part of a Neighbourhood Policing Team. When phoning please remember to tell the Contact Centre Officer that you are a ‘Neighbourhood Watch Coordinator’ (or have one in your area who provided this information).

ALWAYS PHONE 999 IF ANYTHING SUSPICIOUS IS HAPPENING AT THE TIME OF THE CALL

DON'T LEAVE YOUR CAR KEYS EASILY VISIBLE
HIDE THEM AWAY IN A NON-OBVIOUS PLACE

Sue Blackburn

Watch Liaison Officer, Community Safety Department
Lancashire Constabulary, Western Division, 2nd Floor Annex, Bonny Street,
Blackpool FY1 5RL Tel: 01253 604134. E-mail: susan.blackburn@lancashire.pnn.police.uk

1 October 2012